Understanding How Rakeback Works

Rakeback is one of the most valuable bonuses in online gambling because it gives you a percentage of the house's edge back on every bet.

Example:

- You bet 5)
- With 20% rakeback, you receive $1 back automatically
- Over time, this significantly extends your play session and improves your odds

Unlike deposit bonuses that come with wagering requirements, rakeback is typically instant and automatic. This makes the BACK20 promo code an excellent choice for players who want straightforward value without complicated terms.

Rainbet Affiliate Code vs. Referral Code – What's the Difference?

Many players search for rainbet affiliate code or rainbet referral code interchangeably, but there are subtle differences:

Affiliate Code

An affiliate code is typically used by content creators, streamers, and marketers who promote Rainbet in exchange for revenue share. These codes often start at 10-20% commission on their referred players' activity.

Example: The code "vendru1" found on Reddit gives affiliates a percentage of house edge from their referrals.

Referral Code

A referral code is what regular players use to invite friends. When your friend signs up with your code, both of you typically receive bonuses—often free spins or bonus cash.

Our BACK20 code functions as both an affiliate and referral code, giving you the 20% rakeback while also supporting our site.
